2. The Carrier shall not be liable in any capacity whatsoever for loss or delay to the Goods or non-delivery or misdelivery howsoever caused while the Goods are in the United States of America away from the sea-terminal and are not in the actual custody of the Carrier. At all times the Carrier acts as agent only for and on behalf of the Merchant and agrees to procure transportation of the Goods in accordance with the usual terms, conditions and tariff(s) of Participating Carrier. If for any reason the Carrier is desired the right to act as agent only at these times, its liability for loss and damage to the Goods or non-delivery or misdelivery thereof shall be determined in accordance with Clause 4(B) hereof.

3. If COGSA applies then the liability of the Carrier shall not exceed US$500 per package or customary freight unit unless the value of the Goods has been declared on the face hereof with the consent of the Carrier and extra freight has been paid in the amount of the actual custody of the Carrier or its sub-carrier and the declared value (if higher) shall be substituted for the limit and any partial loss or damage shall be adjusted pro-rata on the basis of such declared value.

4. Except as provided herein in Clauses 4(D)(1) and (2), and where COGSA does not apply by operation of law, Carrier's liability will be governed by COGSA unless another body of law is specifically applicable to the carriage of the Goods or the transport where the loss occurred is more favourable to the Carrier (with regards to defenses and limitations), in which case that other body of law will apply.

5) WARRANTIES. The Merchant represents, warrants and agrees that: (a) The Goods and any Containers packed by the Merchant are packed and loaded in such a manner as to be handled in the ordinary course of transport, unless otherwise indicated on this Bill of Lading, in conformity with applicable laws, rules, regulations or orders of the relevant authorities. 6) MERCHANT'S RESPONSIBILITY AND INDEMNIFICATION 1. All of the persons coming within the definition of Merchant shall be jointly and severally liable to the Carrier for the due fulfillment of all obligations undertaken by the Merchant in this Bill of Lading and remain so liable throughout the transportation notwithstanding their having transferred this Bill of Lading and/or title to the Goods to another party. 2. The Shipper further warrants to the Carrier that the particulars relating to the Goods as set out on the face of this Bill of Lading have been checked by the Shipper on receipt of this Bill of Lading and that such particulars and any other particulars furnished by or on behalf of the Merchant are true and accurate, complete and adequate, accurate and complete. 3. The Shipper shall indemnify the Carrier against all loss, damage and expenses arising or resulting from inaccuracies in or inadequacy of such particulars. 4. The Merchant undertakes not to tender for transportation any Goods which require refrigeration without giving written notice of their nature and the required temperature setting of the refrigeratic controls before receipt of the Goods by the Carrier. 5. The Merchant agrees to indemnify and hold harmless the Carrier against all and any claims, loss, damage, fines or expenses arising or resulting from any breach of any warranty or other obligation of the Merchant under the terms of this Bill of Lading or application law (including but not limited to those the Carrier may incur or incur to any person which the Carrier may suffer by reason of its liability to the Merchant). In such event, the Carrier shall indemnify the Merchant against all and any claims, loss, damage or expenses arising or resulting from or in respect of any claim against the Merchant arising from the Merchant's obligation(s) under this Bill of Lading.

7) REGULATIONS RELATING TO GOODS (a) The Merchant shall comply with all rules, laws, regulations or requirements of customs, port and other authorities, and shall bear and pay all duties, taxes, freight, imposts, expenses or losses incurred or suffered by reason thereof or by reason of any legal, incorrect or insufficient description, marking, numbering or addressing of the Goods, and indemnify the Carrier in respect thereof. (b) If the Carrier is obliged to handover the Goods of any part thereof into the custody of any customs, port or other authority, such handover shall constitute due delivery of the Goods of any part thereof to the Merchant under this Bill of Lading.

8) SHIPPER-PACKED CONTAINERS 1. If a Container has not been filled, packed, stuffed or loaded by the Carrier, the Carrier shall not be liable for loss of or damage to the contents and the Merchant shall indemnify the Carrier against all loss, damage, liability or expense incurred by the Carrier, if such loss, damage, liability or expense has been caused by: (a) the manner in which the Container has been filled, packed, stuffed or loaded; or (b) the unsuitability of the contents for carriage in Containers; or (c) the unsuitability or defective condition of the Container arising without any want of due diligence on the part of the Carrier to make the Container reasonably fit for the purpose for which it is required; or (d) the unsuitability of the contents for carriage in Containers in respect of any temperature controls thereof which would have been apparent upon reasonable inspection by the Merchant at or prior to the time when the Container was filled, packed, stuffed or loaded; or (e) the packing or temperate controlled Goods as other than the booked temperature.

2. The Shipper is responsible for the packing and sealing of all Shipper-packed Containers. The Shipper shall inspect Containers before stuffing them and the use of the Containers shall be prima facie evidence of the receipt of the Container by the Carrier and that the contents of the Container are in conformity with the description on the face of this Bill of Lading. If, in any event, the Carrier shall not be liable for any shortage of Goods. If a claim for shortage is made against the Carrier, the Merchant agrees to indemnify the Carrier against all and any costs (including, but without limitation, legal costs), expenses, liabilities or losses of whatsoever nature suffered and/or incurred in connection with any such claim.

9) DANGEROUS GOODS AND CONTRABAND 1. The Merchant undertakes not to tender for transportation any Goods which are of a dangerous, inflammable, radioactive or damaging nature without previously giving written notice of their nature to the Carrier and marking the Goods and their Container or other covering on the outside as required by any rules or regulations which may be applicable during the carriage. Goods which are dangerous, inflammable, radioactive or damaging in nature and which are not so marked, are to be deemed unloaded, destroyed, or rendered harmless without compensation, and if the Merchant has not given notice of their nature to the Carrier under Clause 9(1), the Carrier shall be under no liability to make any general average contribution in respect of such Goods. 2. The Merchant warrants the Goods are lawful Goods and undertakes not to deliver to the Carrier any Containers or Goods containing any contraband.

3. If the requirement set out in Clauses 9(1) and (2) is not complied with, the Merchant shall indemnify the Carrier against all loss, damage or expense of whatsoever nature and however arising out of such Goods or Containers being tendered for transportation or delivered to or handed over by the Carrier. (b) DECK CARGO AND LIVESTOCK 1. Goods to be stowed in Containers other than flats or pallets) which are stated herein to be carried on deck and cartons, crates, boxes, bundles, etc., shall be carried on deck and under no circumstances shall the Carrier be liable for loss of or damage to such Goods. 2. Goods stowed in Containers other than flats or pallets, whether by the Carrier or the Merchant, may be carried on or under deck without notice to the Merchant. Goods (other than livestock) whether carried on deck or under deck shall participate in general average and shall be deemed to be within the definition of Goods for purposes of the Hague Rules, Hague-Visby Rules or COGSA, as the case may be.

3. If Goods not in Containers are carried on deck, the Carrier shall so state such carriage on the face hereof. When Goods are carried on deck, the Carrier shall be required to specify note, "on deck" carriage on the face of this Bill of Lading, any custom to the contrary notwithstanding. 10) NOTIFICATION AND DELIVERY 1. Except as provided by tariff, any mention herein of port parties is solely for the Carrier's information, and failure to give notification shall not render the Carrier liable nor relieve the Merchant of any obligation to the Carrier. 2. The Merchant warrants the Goods within the Bill of Lading are in conformity with the description on the face of this Bill of Lading. 3. If the Merchant fails to take delivery of the Goods or of part thereof upon expiration of the tariff's prescribed free time, the Goods shall be deemed to have been delivered to the Merchant and the Carrier may with or without notice, but subject to its lien, unship the Goods if packed in Containers and/or store or warehouse the Goods or any part thereof ashore, afloat, in the open or under cover at the sole risk and expense of the Merchant. Thereupon, the liability of the Carrier in respect of the Goods shall cease wholly and the costs of such storage (if paid) or payable by the Carrier or any agent or sub-contractor of the Carrier) shall be borne upon demand by the Merchant to the Carrier. 4. In all circumstances, Carrier shall have no liability whatsoever for the misdelivery of Goods in its actual or constructive possession to persons holding forged or fraudulent documents, which responsibility properly to original Bills of Lading or other documents entitling them to possession, as long as the Carrier has acted in good faith and does not intentionally deliver the Goods to persons known by him to have no right to possession under the Bill of Lading.

11) MULTIPLE BILLS OF LADING 1. Goods will only be delivered in a Container to an individual Merchant if all Bills of Lading in respect of the content of the Container have been surrendered authorizing delivery to that Merchant at a single Place of Delivery. In the event that this requirement is not fulfilled the Carrier will, in its absolute discretion, unship the Container and, in respect of Goods which Bills of Lading have been surrendered, deliver them to the Merchant. Such delivery shall constitute due delivery hereunder but will only be effected against payment by the Merchant of the appropriate charges. 2. If multiple Bills of Lading are issued in respect of the contents of a Container, then the particular of the Bills described on the face hereof shall not comprise part of the contents of the Container indicated if the Carrier is required to deliver the Goods to more than one Merchant and if all or part of the total Goods within the Container consists of bulk Goods or unappropiated Goods, or becomes marked or unmarked or unidentifiable, the Merchants shall take delivery (whether of any damaged portion) and bear any shortage in such proportions as the Carrier shall in its absolute discretion determine, and such delivery shall constitute due delivery hereunder. In such event the Carrier shall not be liable for any shortage, loss, or damage of the Goods or other discrepancies or of the Goods, which are found upon unpacking of the Container.

12) FREIGHT AND CHARGES 1. Freight and other charges (including but not limited to destination charges) shall be deemed fully earned on receipt of the Goods or any part thereof, by the Carrier whether or not such freight and charges are stated on the face of this Bill of Lading or intended to be Prepaid or Collect at destination, and shall be paid in full without offset, counterclaim or deduction (non-renewable) on the basis of the invoice or other documents submitted to the Carrier by the Merchant. 2. The Merchant's attention is drawn to the stipulations concerning currency in which the freight and charges are to be paid, rates of exchange, devaluation and other contingencies relative to freight and charges in the applicable tariffs. 3. The freight hereon is based on net weight of the Goods including but not limited to, general average contributions, freight, delivery, destination, demurrage, detention, port and/or handling charges, to whomsoever due and/or for the cost of recovering the same should any fire or perils befall the Goods or any part thereof, whether the Goods are in or out of the possession of the Carrier or not.
